CHAMBER OF COMMERCE ELECTS NEW OFFICERS.

At Monday night's meeting of the Sonoma Valley Chamber of Commerce, the following-named were elected officers for the new term: President, Dr. A. M. Thomson; Vice-President, R. L. Watt; Treasurer, Wm. F. Clewe; Secretary, John F. Picetti; Board of Directors: E. T. Casson, J. F. Prestwood, Dr. Irving C. Gobar, Charles LaTorres and F. T. Duhring.

The matter of arranging an exhibit for the Panama-Pacific Exposition was discussed and decided upon, and later a committee will be named to take charge of the display of Sonoma Valley's products, and an effort is to be made to secure the recognition to which we are entitled.

The good news that the Black Point cut-off was in the hands of the surveyors was the subject of animated discussion.

According to Sunday's issue of the Examiner, two survey parties of the California Highway Commission are now in the field on the cut-off by Black Point and Napa, which will make a new short route from San Francisco to Sacramento and the East Division Engineer Loder and Geologist Osborne of the Highway Commission will make a geological survey within a few days and work on this important tie-up of the State highway will be pushed by the commissioners. The highway engineer and his assistants are pleased with the result of the reconnaissance over Napa cut-off, as it indicates that an excellent road can be provided within the financial limits. This work will be pushed because of its importance in connection with the motor traffic of the Exposition year.

The fact that this work is to be pushed forward with rapidity has already proven an incentive to the members of the Chamber of Commerce, who realize that there is work ahead for the public-spirited, energetic men of this valley. It won't be long until California will be receiving visitors from all over the world.

Visitors to the Golden West will mass in the Exposition City but for a time, and then scatter throughout the State, to cities of less importance and into the rural districts. Sonoma Valley, which is so easy of access, will, as a result of this Black Point cut-off, become in actual reality a suburb of the Metropolis of the West, therefore it is a reasonable conclusion that it will be one of the most largely visited sections of California.

With this thought in mind, with the knowledge that we have the most desirable, the most sought-for inducements to the home-seeker, there is no reason why 1915 should not prove a banner one for the peerless Valley of the Moon.

We expect something to materialize to advance our town and surrounding country from the newly organized Sonoma Valley Chamber of Commerce. The organization is made up of men of intelligence, enterprise and good judgment who are foresighted enough to see the splendid future of this valley. We expect much at their hands, which they will not fail of accomplishment.

No better man could have been placed in command than Dr. A. M. Thomson. He's a booster from the word "go," his efforts contributing largely to the securing of the Black Point cut-off. He has ever been urgent for the progress of the valley, and will undoubtedly infuse some of his own hopeful enthusiasm into associate members. Moreover the resourcefulness and tact of Dr. Thomson, in conjunction with his popularity, will prove of great advantage in securing concerted and harmonious effort.

Before appointing a committee to take up the work of arranging the Sonoma Valley 1915 display, Dr. Thomson will endeavor to secure the cooperation of the farmers, and will appoint a committee to solicit members for the Chamber of Commerce among the gentlemen who are to provide the exhibit.

The others of the officers, Messrs. Watt, Clewe, Picetti, Casson, Prestwood, Gobar, LaTorres and Duhring, are recognized each and every one as men of broad perception and progressive ideas, who will bend their best energies toward bringing their home section to the front.

We Californians have the reputation of being good boosters. Some sections of the State "worked like beavers" for the record and earned it; but we semi-indolent spirits, peopling a sun-kissed, Nature-endowed vale, than which the west holds no spot of earth more beneficently God-blessed, sit apathetic, unmindful as it were of the fact that Opportunity is knocking at our door, awaiting an invitation to enter.

We have boosters in the Sonoma Valley, as a matter of fact, but we need many more than we can justly claim. Every resident of a locality should be a booster, and if you don't want to boost, then keep uncharitable thoughts and opinions unspoken.

Don't be one of those unwholesome, obnoxious beings whose daily utterances are a repetition of the following, handed us by Attorney Frank Sprague:

"Lor, please don't let this town grow. I've lived here over ten years, and during that time I have fought every public improvement, and have knocked everything and everybody; no firm or individual has established business without my doing all I could to put them out of business; I've used every underhanded method known to the knocking fraternity to injure their business. I've lied about them, and would have stolen from them if I had the courage; I've done all I could to keep the town from growing; and never have I spoken a good word for it, but instead I've knocked it hard and often."

"It pains me, O Lord, to see that in spite of my knocking this town is beginning to grow. Some day I fear, I will be called upon to put down sidewalks in front of my property, and who knows but what I may have to help keep up the streets that run by my premises? This, O Lord, would be more than I could bear. It would cost me money and I could not afford to pay out any money, though all I have is right here in this town."

"Then, too, more people might come if the town begins to grow, which would cause me to lose some of my pull. I ask, therefore, to keep this town at a standstill at least, that I may continue to be the chief knocker."

BASEBALL NEWS

EDITED BY KENNETH WOOD

Sonoma won another game last Sunday afternoon when the fast Elbees, of San Francisco, were the victims by a score of 8 to 6.

Both pitchers were hit rather freely, but "Lefty" Helberg, for the winners, kept his hits well scattered after the fifth inning when the Elbees made a bunch of runs on four hits and three errors by the local infield. At this point, with the score 6 to 2 against them, the home boys settled down and played splendid ball, finally winning the game with a few runs to spare. Batteries—Helberg and Black; Green and Warfield.

Owing to the brisk wind, there was considerable diamond dust at the ball park last Sunday afternoon. Captain Ralph Evans, whose batting average is now .463, made the dust fly nearly every time at bat. Evans is a sure-enough batter, and his team mates are also hitting the elusive sphere when it comes.

In the second inning, Helberg retired all three batters via the strike-out route.

Bill Block had a finger nail split in the early innings. The injury was very painful and handicapped Bill considerably in taking the throws at first base.

Shortstop Collins' absence from the game necessitated a shift in the local line-up which was not altogether advantageous. We hope to see Collins back in the game tomorrow.

Runaway Accident

A party of guests at Agua Caliente hired a team and surrey from the Union Livery Stable, Monday, for a drive around the country. While on a tour of inspection of the Jack London property, the team ran away, completely demolishing the surrey and badly cutting one of the horses about the head. As the surrey was unoccupied at the time of the accident, there is not a doubt but that the team was left untied, as the horses were perfectly gentle.

Visit in the Southland

A merry party of pleasure-seekers, comprising the Misses Alice Soderberg, Helen Antrim, Virginia Picetti and Katinka Nomen, departed for Capitola, Wednesday morning. The young ladies will be away ten days and anticipate having a perfectly delightful sojourn in the southland.

WHAT OUR NEAR-BY NEIGHBORS ARE DOING.

VINEBURG

G. Festino, one of Vineburg's solid men, was a visitor to the Bay City on Sunday and Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hiser were the guests of friends in Napa City on Sunday last.

A large amount of fruit, wine and other products of this part of the valley are shipped daily from this point, and a large amount received.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pape have moved to San Francisco, where Mr. Pape has secured a responsible position with a large mercantile firm. Their many friends here wish them success in their new home.

We understand that Melville Erskine of this place is now editor of the Sonoma Valley Expositor. Mr. Erskine is a highly educated gentleman, a profound scholar and fully qualified to fill the position he now occupies.

Fred Batto and son, Fredrick, Jr., visited the Bay City on Wednesday last and returned the same evening, accompanied by his wife and daughter, Miss Emily, who have been the guests of friends in the bay cities for a week or more.

Quite a number of our baseball fans attended the game in Sonoma on Sunday and were pleased with the result. They all say that James L. Modini, "Starlight Jim," is some manager.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Geoffert, (nee Lillie Bulotti) of San Francisco, and little daughter, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. Colli at "Bird Nest Cottage" on Friday of last week.

Mrs. August Figone and children of San Francisco, accompanied by Miss Mary Batto, arrived last Monday and will be the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Batto for two weeks.

A. W. Lehrke still continues to improve and beautify his property interests in progressive Vineburg, and has now Mona, Colombe, a well-known artist of the metropolis, renovating the "New Vineburg Inn."

One of the most attractive resorts in this part of the valley is that of Otto Schuhmann's at Buena Vista Station. Every little detail is up to date and everything is arranged for the comfort and pleasure of all who wish to visit this pretty resort.

A merry party of residents of this vicinity enjoyed an auto trip through the famous fruit belt of Northern California, Sunday last. The two well cars contained the following people: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Batto, Joseph Groskopf, Cedric Cutter, Frank Groskopf, Chas. Groskopf, and Fred Batto, Jr.; Mesdames Cedric Cutter, Jos. Groskopf and Arthur Batto, Misses Louise and Evelyn Batto. During the trip the following places of interest were visited: Napa, Cordeira, Fairfield, Suisun, Vacaville, Winters, Elmira, and Dixon. They report a fine time, after motoring one hundred and forty miles without an accident, only at Winters one of the chauffeurs ran into a chicken with feathers. He thought it was a Napa beefsteak he struck.

The Fall of the Bastille, July 14th, was duly celebrated at Vineburg on last Tuesday evening and a large number of people assembled at the New Vineburg Inn and watched a grand display of fireworks. Music and dancing was also indulged in and all had a fine time.

Messrs. Fred and George Lowell started their fruit drying plant on the Al Griffith place on last Monday and it is the intention of the gentlemen to dry a large quantity of fruit during the season. Both are expert fruit men and will give employment to between fifteen and twenty experienced hands.

Enrico Forni, our new marshal, has just received a star from the Standard Oil Company and it is a gem—an electric star. Whenever an auto driver, motorcyclist or bicyclist exceeds the speed limit, marshal Forni shows his star and they stop and slow down, until he tells them to move on. Sonoma's marshal should get one.

EASY JIM.

EL VERANO NEWS

Dan Singleton, of the metropolis, spent Sunday at El Verano.

Frank LaHaye visited his summer home here Sunday.

Harry Rosemond, of the San Francisco Orpheum staff, is visiting here for a few days.

Attorney Frank Sprague, of Sonoma, was in town Monday, mingling amongst his old friends.

Lumber has arrived for the construction of a bridge between Boys' Springs and Sonoma Vista tract.

The El Verano boys are quite noticeable at the summer resorts, mingling amongst the summer fairies.

J. E. Daward spent the week-end with his family, at their delightful summer home, west of town.

The many friends of Elmer Owens, who has been very ill, will be glad to hear that he is able to be around again.

Mesdames James and T. H. Baines, with their families, are spending several weeks at Dillions' Beach.

Surveyors are busy surveying the Pacific Improvement Company, property here. It is rumored that the same will be subdivided.

Mrs. Sarah Baines and grandson, Milton Peterson, are enjoying a several weeks' visit with relatives at the favorite seaside resort—Santa Cruz.

Charles Danieli has accepted the agency for the Pacific Nursery Company, and is in a position to furnish anything in the line of trees, plants or garden supplies at reasonable prices.

Geo. Fernold, of San Francisco, entertained a few jolly friends on a fishing trip. We understand that the trip was not only pleasurable, but a very exciting. Where are the fish?

Mrs. Jack Andrews and little daughter Nellie, of El Verano, were severely injured in a runaway accident, Monday morning. The lady was delivering eggs for shipment at the Southern Pacific station, her horse taking fright at that point. When the runaway reached the Mullen store corner, the wagon careened, throwing the occupants violently out. Mrs. Andrews fell first, and on her was landed the heavy seat of the buggy, the child alighting on the top. The injured woman and her little daughter were laid on the Mullen porch and Dr. Thomson summoned. Her injuries were of quite a serious nature, her face and head being badly cut and contused, as was also the body of Mrs. Andrews, several wounds requiring stitching. The little girl also suffered painful scratches and bruises.

SHELLVILLE

M. Crandall spent Wednesday and Thursday in the City of Ross.

Miss M. Burchard, the former popular teacher of San Luis district, is enjoying a part of her vacation in San Jose.

Mrs. Anton Kiser is entertaining relatives this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McGill are at home, after a pleasant visit at Suisun.

Mrs. E. Steddom and Miss Helen Johnson enjoyed the pleasure so dear to feminine hearts of a day's shopping, Tuesday, which was spent in Santa Rosa.

Miss Evelyn Leahy is here from San Francisco, spending the week with her sister, Mrs. Erhard Steiger.

Otto Brandt, of Schellville, was so unfortunate as to lose his handsome Clydesdale stallion through pneumonia, Wednesday. The horse, a four-year-old, was greatly admired by every horseman who had seen him. The animal was valued at one thousand dollars. Mr. Brandt, who is in Nevada City, has the sincere sympathy of his many friends over his loss.

Mrs. Erhard Steiger entertained "a bunch" of charming girls—the Misses Ethel and Marguerite Gerke, Florence Green and May Walsh—at dinner, Thursday. The daintily-appointed table, adorned with golden poppies and loaded with choice delicacies, was the scene of much merriment. The girls enjoyed the day immensely, thanks to the most delightful of hostesses.

The San Luis School opens on July 27th, with Miss Kate Wilber as teacher. Miss Wilber has taught school in this county for several years, holds a life diploma and comes highly recommended. The Board of Trustees comprise Jos. Keiser, F. Schell and F. Helberg, the latter being clerk.

Mrs. J. A. Landsborough entertained the Sonoma Bridge-Whist Club, of which she is a member, at her delightful suburban home, Locust Grove, Thursday afternoon. The interior of the spacious residence was embellished with greenery, in the artistic arrangement to be expected from the hostess, who is skilled in the decorative art. The afternoon's indulgence in the favorite pastime resulted in Mrs. Ralph Hotz winning the honors, and a large and elegant box of fine stationery. The most delicious refreshments were served, as Mrs. Landsborough possesses the very enviable knack of preparing the most delectable of dishes, as well as being an ideal hostess.

HAPPY JACK.

TOM McNAMARA FOR SURVEYOR.

Tom R. McNamara—"The man who never forgot a friend"—he was a friend to your friend," announces himself as candidate for county surveyor to succeed himself.

About three years ago, on the death of County Surveyor George H. Winkler, Tom R. McNamara was appointed to fill the unexpired term. Mr. McNamara had for three terms loaned his assistance and influence to others in their desire to acquire this office, and now calls on his friends and acquaintances for their assistance for himself.

Mr. McNamara is a man of family and for twenty-eight of the thirty-two years of his life has been a resident of Santa Rosa and Sonoma county. Four years ago Mr. McNamara made what is probably the most unique campaign ever made in this State. At that time George H. Winkler, who was then county surveyor, was sick and had gone to New Mexico to try and regain his health. Mr. McNamara, his deputy, took the stump for six weeks and waged a campaign against great odds. Mr. Winkler as a result was returned to office by the second largest majority on the Republican ticket. Tom McNamara has been noted for fidelity to his friends, hence the slogan, "The man who never forgot a friend—he was a friend to your friend."

For many years Mr. McNamara did no surveying except in the surveying of roads and settling of large estates. His ability is well-known as he has run his chains over hundreds of miles of Sonoma county roads and lands. On numerous surveys involving thousands of acres of land and hundreds of heirs, the subdivisions into parts of equal value has been assigned to the good judgment and fidelity of Mr. McNamara. Of this he has never been known to fail to give satisfaction.

Such results as this has made the present county surveyor in demand by lawyers and executors and administrators of large and small estates; and it is on such records as this that Tom McNamara asks the support of his friends.

Tom McNamara is no stranger to the people of Sonoma and Sonoma Valley. His kindly greeting and ever-ready smile is well-known to all. His generosity, amounting almost to prodigality, is well-known as can be attested to by many in their hour of need.

Mr. McNamara has never been elected to an office, and has never before asked for one. He is now only filling the unexpired term of his deceased chief.

Give Tom a chance.

Ed L. Head of Sacramento for State Treasurer.

Ed L. Head, an out-and-out Republican, is a candidate for State Treasurer. He is the Keeper of the State Archives at Sacramento, and is widely known throughout Northern and Southern California. For many years he was cashier of the Spring Valley Water Company of San Francisco; also President of the California Mutual Fund Building and Loan Association. He has also served two terms as a member of the Board of Education of San Francisco.

Mr. Head is a well-known lodge man, having been Grand Treasurer of the Grand Aerie, F. O. E., for five years. He is a Past President of San Francisco Aerie, No. 5, F. O. E.; Past President of Stanford Parlor, N. S. G. W.; Past Grand of Alta Lodge, No. 205, I. O. O. F.; member of Sacramento Lodge, No. 1020, Loyal Order of Moose, and a member of Anna Rebekah Lodge, No. 137, of San Diego, of which city he was a well-known business man previous to his becoming a State official.

Mr. Head is in every way qualified for the office he is asking your suffrage for and ought to receive the support of every loyal Republican in the State. The Index-Tribune does not hesitate to support him as against the field, and in doing so bespeak for him a big vote in the Sonoma Valley.

IN MEMORIAM

The death of Mrs. Mary Theresa O'Connor, who passed away at her home in Santa Rosa, on July 3d, brought profound sorrow to a devoted family, as well as to the devoted friends, as well as to the devoted family of the deceased. The passing of the respected Sonoma pioneer followed a protracted sickness, dating from November.

Mrs. O'Connor was a native of New York, and aged fifty-nine years. In her infancy her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dowdall, came to Sonoma Valley, locating upon the farm whereon their daughters, Mrs. Kate Murray and Miss Agnes Dowdall, now reside. She had enjoyed the distinction of having her marriage to Thomas O'Connor celebrated in Mission San Francisco de Solano. The O'Connors resided in Petaluma until the death of Mr. O'Connor, about ten years ago, when the family removed to Santa Rosa.

Seven children mourn the departure of their much-loved mother, as follows: Mesdames Jos. and Arthur Walker, and Henry Kirkpatrick, and Edward and Robert O'Connor of Santa Rosa; Mesdames Fred McFarland and Walter Four of Sebastopol. To mourn her loss, too, Mrs. O'Connor left two sisters and three brothers—Mrs. Kate Gray, Miss Agnes, R. J. and N. Wdall being highly esteemed of this section. The other, E. J. Dowdall, makes his home in Alameda.

Mrs. O'Connor was a gentle, refined character, of warm and generous impulse, whose years were characterized by devoted tenderness as wife and mother, and sincerity and steadfastness as friend. The remains of the beloved dead were laid to rest beside those of her husband in Petaluma.

Swimming Contest at Agua Caliente Springs

Arrangements have been completed for the second in the series of swimming contests to be held at Agua Caliente Springs. The present event is to take place Saturday evening, July 18th, and is expected to attract a large and enthusiastic crowd, as the first contest created much interest, both with the guests at Agua Caliente Springs hotel and the spectators from nearby resorts, as well as with local residents.

Valuable prizes are to be offered and will be an incentive to the participants to put forth their best efforts to capture one or more of the trophies. The events have been so planned that all the contestants—both ladies and gentlemen, will have a chance to win, and there will be prizes for young and old, for the expert swimmer and for those who are just beginners in learning the useful art. The kiddies have not been forgotten and there will be special events for them.

This innovation at Agua Caliente Springs has created much favorable comment and marks one of the many progressive steps taken by Mr. Richards in advertising his resort, and incidentally the picturesque Sonoma Valley.

The races to be given at Santa Rosa to-morrow, Sunday, under the auspices of the Santa Rosa Driving Club, promise to provide some rare exhibitions of speed for the lovers of the light harness horse. Ryan's able assistant, "Jimmie" Sterling, left last Thursday for Santa Rosa with the above named horses in charge. Suffice it to say under the able handling of Mr. Ryan, the Sonoma horses will render a good account of themselves.

SOCIETY EVENTS---CLUB NOTES---PERSONAL MENTION

(BESTY JANE'S OWN DEPARTMENT)

To the supreme satisfaction of the feminine population of our city the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club will resume social activities, the initial affair being a lawn and garden party. Mrs. Henry J. Wicker is to lend her beautiful grounds for this function. Saturday evening of next week. Mrs. Carrie Burlingame, the Club's energetic president, placed the following-named ladies in charge of the affair: Mesdames H. J. Wicker (chairman), A. H. Bates, E. T. Casson, H. H. Eaton, Geo. Lowell, A. W. Adler, L. S. Simmons, L. V. Emparan, and the Misses Anna Pemberton and Doris Cleve. An agreeable change from the hackneyed, routine program will be many novelties of an amusing character, and will include a representation of the mysterious "Bonnie Burr," of Bulletin notoriety. Whoever is clever enough to penetrate the disguise of the "Veiled Princess" will be rewarded with a prize. Other features in course of arrangement are a museum and "A trip around the world." Card and games of various kinds, skill in the playing of which wins prizes, will also entertain.

Now, then, reader, mine, won't you agree that these details have created within your pleasure-loving being a flutter of anticipation? For a fact "variety is the spice of life," and the resourceful ladies arranging the function of next week have born in mind the trite idiom. No admission is to be charged, the ladies believing their efforts will be sufficiently recompensed by the sale of refreshments and other sources.

Another fact, too, to which I particularly wish to draw the attention of my readers is that this is not to be an exclusive club affair. A cordial invitation to attend is extended the general public, and all will be made welcome. The proceeds are to help swell the fund for the construction of the most ardently desired club house.

Tonight, in Chauvet Hall, Glen Ellen, an entertainment and dance is to be given for the benefit of St. Mary's Church of that city. An excellent program has been arranged, which includes clever and versatile talent from San Francisco and elsewhere. Miss Pearl Hickman, who was too ill to appear at the entertainment at Boyes' last Saturday night, will dance tonight and my readers are aware of the talent of this delightful little lady. Mr. and Mrs. Sears, guests at Boyes', are to assist. Art Hickman, the popular manager of the Boyes' Theatre, ever responsive in assisting local functions, is aiding Rev. Father Comerford in his effort to present a meritorious program. With the entertainment, dancing, and refreshments a good time certainly awaits all who are present at Chauvet Hall, Glen Ellen, tonight.

Chauvet Hall, Glen Ellen, will be the scene of another pleasure-giving affair Saturday night of next week, on which occasion a grand ball is to be given under the auspices of Glen Parlor, Native Sons of the Golden West, for the benefit of the homeless children. A. Kunde, Chas. J. Poppe and J. Pancrazi were the capable committee-men chosen to arrange the affair, and past services rendered by these gentlemen have proven that no detail adding to the enjoyment of an event is ever overlooked. Sonoma will not forget the homeless little ones or the effort made by Glen Ellen's Native Sons to add to their comfort.

Congratulations are being showered upon Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Shaw by a legion of friends since receiving the announcement of the arrival of a fine baby boy. The little stranger made his welcome advent into the home and loving hearts of his happy parents Thursday morning, and as he bears the honor of "first and only" son, there is, quite naturally, rejoicing in the Shaw household. Dr. Hays, attending physician, reports the good news that mother and babe are doing splendidly.

Dr. Hays also reported last week a visit made by the Stork on Thursday, July 9th, which brought great rejoicing to Mr. and Mrs. John Serres, of El Verano. On his mission of love on this trip, too, Mr. Stork bore under his protecting wing a splendid boy—another very welcome "only son."

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Sears, like that of the Shaws, now happily boasts "our daughter and our son."

Sunday last was the birthday anniversary—the sixty-third—of our esteemed resident, Mr. B. F. Campbell, and the event was celebrated in an altogether unusual and delightfully pleasurable manner. Accompanied by the members of their family—Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Ogg, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Campbell and Donald Campbell—the worthy gentleman and his wife enjoyed the week-end motoring, the party covering an area of two hundred and twenty-six miles during the two days' trip.

The tourists departed from home Saturday morning at seven o'clock going through Santa Rosa up to Healdsburg, and from thence to The Geysers. Lunch was partaken of and the wondrous, world-renowned mysteries inspected, after which the journey was resumed, the party stopping to dine at McCray's "Old Homestead," above Cloverdale. From there the ride was resumed to Hopland, at which point the night was spent.

Sunday morning an early start was made for Highland Springs, from thence to Lakeport, continuing on to Soda Bay, from there to Kelseyville, then on to Adam Springs and Middletown, crossing Mt. St. Helena to Calistoga, from which point the party drove down through the Napa Valley and home. It was a wearisome trip, of course, but a most interesting and enjoyable tour and the ladies and gentlemen returned well pleased.

A host of friends extend congratulations to Mr. Campbell and trust he will live to happily celebrate the passing of many more milestones along life's pathway.

The announcement of the marriage of Miss Cecelia Dowdall and Leslie C. McKinnon, of San Francisco, was a pleasant surprise to the wide circle of friends claimed by the fair bride in this valley, and although the betrothal of the happy couple was known to relatives and a few intimate friends, yet their union was not anticipated for a few months yet. The nuptials were celebrated quietly Sunday afternoon, at four o'clock, in the metropolis, the newly-wedded couple departing on a honeymoon trip in the southern part of the State. On their return, they will reside in the Bay City, where the groom has a comfortably furnished flat awaiting the reception of his bride, who is the second eldest daughter of Sonoma Valley's esteemed residents, Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Dowdall, and is a delightful girl of highest character and charming personality. For more than a year past she had held an excellent position as stenographer in the Bay City. The groom is a young man of sterling character, industrious, and worthy of the popular girl to whom he has been united. May their union be blessed with peace, happiness and prosperity.

Tuesday, July 14th, was a most pleasurable afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Froment, on which occasion was jointly celebrated the fourteenth anniversary of the birth of their second daughter Miss Antoinette, and that of the French holiday, the Fall of the Bastille. During the afternoon dancing, games and music were indulged, and delicious refreshments partaken of. The hospitality extended by the host and hostess was lavish and the celebration of the joint anniversaries will be happily remembered by the guests, all of whom wish for winsome, vivacious Antoinette many, many joyous birthdays. Among those present were: Mesdames J. Studer, Thos. Lewis, Ernest Campbell, E. Gallagher, Lepori, and the Misses Dorothy Dobbel, Viola Studer, Celia Lepori, Adele Chauvet, Marguerite Haganette, Irma Ellsworth, Eugenie, Antoinette and Marguerite Froment, Florence and Master Coleman Campbell.

Mrs. Ingalls, wife of Postmaster J. C. Ingalls, of Healdsburg, accompanied her brother-in-law, Frank Koenig, and the rest of the Ryan "boosters"—Jos. Kiecher, M. E. Cummings and the popular candidate himself on their return from the northern city, last Saturday night, for a little visit with her relatives in this city. Miss Koenig was greatly disappointed in his anticipated pleasure of winning many votes among old-time friends for our aspirant for sheriff, discovering the fact they were already won. "Why, there was nothing for me to do, as it was evident that everyone is for Ryan up there," jubilantly exclaimed Mr. Koenig. "His record has preceded him—his fine character, his sobriety—they know it all. We know all about him, and you rest assured we'll give Ryan a handsome majority," was what I heard on every hand. Now, unless Healdsburg has developed a remarkable crop of hypocrites—for I never knew one during my years of residence there—Joe will surely win out in Healdsburg. Now, isn't that just the best news ever?

Mrs. F. D. Bose is in San Francisco visiting with relatives and friends. Mrs. Bose will remain for an indefinite length of time in the metropolis, in the hope that the change will benefit her health, which has been failing of late, and family and friends ardently hope for rapid and permanent improvement.

Mrs. L. H. Green and Miss Hazel Gies returned, Wednesday evening, from a several days' visit with the parents of Miss Gies in San Francisco. On the return trip, the ladies stopped at Tiburon that Mrs. Green might visit her ten-year-old nephew, Graham Bradley, who was seriously injured last week. Little Graham was standing on a pile of lumber watching the switching of a railway train, and the pile fell, a piece of the lumber striking the little fellow in the back of the head, fracturing his skull. The child was taken to the Lane Hospital, San Francisco, and operated upon by Dr. Stillman, who found that the brain had most fortunately escaped injury. Graham was removed to the home of his parents in Tiburon, Monday, and Mrs. Green was comforted to find that he is progressing very nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Ogg took their departure, Monday morning, for the Bay City, and on Wednesday sailed for their home in Honolulu. During their stay of four months in California, this popular couple toured to many Eastern points. The last few days prior to their departure were spent with Mrs. Ogg's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Campbell, and other relatives in this city. A host of friends wish them bon voyage.

L. M. Bish, the genial and efficient manager of Madrone Vineyard, has had the pleasure of entertaining at his hospitable home this week his nephews, Messrs. Raymond and Guy Norris, both of whom, accompanied by their wives, arrived Monday evening. The Norris families have been residing in Tacoma, Wash., and are glad to get back to California, more especially to Sonoma County, in which both gentlemen were born—above Santa Rosa. The Norris Brothers will in all probability again locate in the Banner County, and it is to be hoped their worthy uncle, Mr. Bish, will succeed in his endeavor to persuade them that the beautiful Sonoma Valley is its garden spot.

Miss Helen Rowell enjoyed a visit in Berkeley during the week, returning Thursday morning, to be on hand that afternoon to continue the instruction of her summer class in household arts and domestic science. Quite a number of young people took advantage of the very excellent opportunity offered to acquire knowledge along these lines.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Cornepes and family, who are occupying their pretty summer cottage at Boyes' Springs, have been entertaining a number of friends during July. Among their guests over Independence Day were Messrs. Jack Mernin and Jas. E. Shean, Jr. The latter gentleman is connected with the Shean Engraving and Printing Company of San Francisco.

Mrs. Will White arrived in Sonoma, Saturday, and visited at the home of her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Lewis, until Monday, when she departed for Redding, Shasta County, at which place her husband holds the position of telegraph operator for the Western Union Company. Mrs. Lewis also entertained over the week-end her sister, Mrs. J. Wilson, and children of Santa Rosa.

Miss Eleanor Kehoe took her departure for San Francisco, Sunday, with the enjoyable prospect of a six weeks' visit among relatives and friends in the bay cities. This popular and talented graduate of the Class of 1914, Sonoma Valley Union High School, intends devoting herself to the study of music for a time, and later will take a stenographic course.

Miss Margaret Burke took her departure, Tuesday, for a fortnight's trip through the Yosemite Valley. On leaving here, Miss Burke was accompanied by Miss Alice Powers, who had passed several days at the Burke home. Miss Powers is assistant editor of the Western Journal of Education and a young woman of splendid capabilities.

Mrs. Ed Giese returned to her home in Benicia, Wednesday, after a week's pleasurable visit in this city, the guest of Mrs. Henry F. Bates. Mrs. Giese has a wide circle of friends in Sonoma, who pleasantly recollect her as a former popular resident of the city, in which part of her girlhood was spent. On her return, Mrs. Giese was accompanied by Miss Zoleta Bates, who will enjoy a several days' sojourn in Benicia.

Mrs. Charles Nauman and children, who had been spending a month at Camp Meeker, arrived in Sonoma, last week, to visit with the lady's mother, Mrs. Amelia H. Bates, and several other relatives. While here Mrs. Nauman is a guest at the home of her brother, H. F. Bates.

Miss Dorothy Lycette returned to her home in the Bay City, Monday, to the regret of a host of our young people, among whom she is a favorite. During the several weeks spent by her in Sonoma, Miss Lycette was the guest of Miss Florence Green.

LOCAL NEWS OF SONOMA AND IMMEDIATE VICINITY

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Ryland were numbered among the Sonoma visitors in San Francisco, the fore part of the week.

Miss May Flaherty, who is well and favorably known in this city, is at the Broadway Sanitarium—a patient of Dr. Thomson.

Miss Ruth Kerns, one of Glen Ellen's popular and successful teachers, is spending her vacation at Santa Cruz, going down to the favorite seaside resort Sunday.

Arthur Fisk, an attache of the Southern Pacific Railway Company, at San Francisco, visited at the Buchanan home over Saturday night.

Warren E. Urquhart is here from San Francisco, spending a few days as the guest of his cousin, Dr. Irving C. Gobar. The gentleman is connected with the United States Rubber Company.

Herbert Leichter will arrive in Sonoma, tomorrow, to spend his vacation of a fortnight visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. Ernest C. Campbell. The young man is connected with the General Electric Company, San Francisco. He has many friends in this city who will greet him with pleasure.

Ray Rice, connected with The Crane Company, San Francisco, was the guest of his friend, Raoul Emparan, Sunday. Mr. Emparan received a card this week from Bob McEwen bearing the information to his friend Raoul that all was "so far, so good." Genial Bob is touring the Yosemite Valley.

Donald Campbell returned to this city last week to spend his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Campbell. Don, who is taking an agricultural course at the University of California, is a great favorite among our boys—and girls as well—hence his vacation period is a pleasure to friends as well as himself.

Richard Rahwyler, the youthful son of our local jeweller, met with an unlucky accident, Tuesday forenoon. With a party of friends, the boy was swimming in the tank at Boyes' Springs, and in diving in a shallow part struck his head on the cement bottom of the big basin, inflicting a painful scalp wound, which necessitated the sewing of several stitches. Dr. W. B. Hays dressed the injury.

The Sonoma Valley Furniture Company is making a specialty of the three most comfortable, durable and best manufactured mattresses on the market—the Ostermoor, Sealy and McRoskey. A mistake cannot be made in selecting any one of the three, as each is standard make and guaranteed for twenty years. A trial of sixty days is given, and John F. Picetti, the enterprising and reliable manager of the firm, says the trial plan works admirably, as the first instance is to be recorded of the return of one of these mattresses after being tested. Our advertising columns will tell you more facts next week.

Monday mornning, Ralph Buchan, on his nine-horse-power De Luxe, and Charles Taylor, mounted on his seven-horse-power Indian motorcycle, left for a week's sight-seeing trip. The boys plan to visit Oakland, San Jose, Watsonville, Salinas, Monterey, Santa Cruz, Pacific Grove, and Carmel-by-the-Sea. They expect to reach home tonight, that is unless delayed by the speed laws. Ralph, especially, finds it hugely exhilarating sport to juggle with fate and the laws by speeding. Knowing his propensity, Ralph's relatives insisted that he carry along a well-filled pocket-book, in case he'd be called upon to deposit bail money.

District Deputy Wm. J. Kehoe installed the following-named officers of Sonoma Valley Council, Young Men's Institute, Thursday night of last week: Chaplain, Rev. T. M. Comerford; President, M. E. Cummings; First Vice-President, Dr. I. C. Gobar; Second Vice-President, W. J. Kehoe; Secretary, L. H. Green; Treasurer, J. N. Dowdall; Marshal, W. J. Kearney; Inside Sentinel, J. H. Murray; Outside Sentinel, George Clerc; Executive Committee, R. J. Dowdall, J. Kearney, E. Castagnasso; Medical Examiner, Dr. Irving C. Gobar. On the conclusion of the ceremonies of the installation, the officers and members of the fraternity discussed an appetizing banquet.

City Trustee Charles McDevitt returned, Wednesday night, from Nevada City, whither he had gone to assist in the settlement of the estate of his brother. Deceased left property valued at $30,000, which was divided equally between his father and two brothers. The estate consists principally of real estate in Marysville, and is splendid income property. While regretting that the good luck of our esteemed townsman is attended by the loss of his brother, yet his host of friends extend congratulations on his increase of fortune.

Mrs. J. Studer is here from Berkeley, enjoying a three week's sojourn with her daughter, Mrs. Thos. Lewis. Mrs. Studer is accompanied by her daughter, Miss Viola, and niece, Miss Irma Ellsworth.

Miss Marion Dewey, a stenographer in the employ of the General Electric Company, San Francisco, is spending her vacation in Sonoma, a guest at the Goodman home on Broadway.

Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Leix, it is expected, will sail from Europe today en route for the United States, and anticipate arriving in this city about August 1st. A cordial welcome awaits these very highly esteemed medics from a host of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Adler and little son left for a week's motor trip, Thursday morning, with Monterey and Santa Cruz as the objective points of interest. Popular Harry Quataroli was at the wheel of the fine Adler car.

G. W. Hays has returned to his home in Berkeley, after spending a fortnight in this city at the Broadway Sanitarium. The gentleman was much improved in health.

Mrs. Chester Pressey returned, Thursday evening, from a ten days' visit with her mother in San Francisco. Mrs. Pressey was accompanied by her bonny little son, the idol of his doting grandfather, A. L. Wells.

W. F. Patterson, a veterinary dentist of San Francisco, accompanied by Dan McGovern, the well-known horseman of Petaluma, spent the week in town visiting their numerous friends. They will "take in" the races at Santa Rosa Sunday.

S. B. Lewis has placed with Leiser & McDevitt an order for an electric motor, which is to be installed at the slaughter house for the operating of the bone-grinding machine. This piece of mechanism—which is used for converting the green bones into chicken feed—has not been used by Mr. Lewis for two years, but will now be turned to profitable account.

Will Fowler was the victim of an unfortunate accident, Monday morning, while driving the delivery wagon of the Cantoni Bakery. The horse, a fractious animal, took fright at a passing automobile, and dragged the young man from the seat to the ground, breaking the bone of the left forearm in two places, at the elbow. Dr. Hays, who attended the injured boy, pronounced the break a bad one and liable to leave disagreeable after-effects. Will has the sympathy of many friends in his misfortune.

W. F. Ogelsby, representing the Extension Division of the Agricultural Department of the University of California, was in town, Tuesday, in the interest of that branch of University industrial work, and more particularly to endeavor to secure the co-operation of the Sonoma Valley Chamber of Commerce in financing the successful student farmer, of the Sonoma Valley Union High School Agricultural Club, who wins out in the competitive test of most successful commercial farming.

S. D. McKesson has disposed of his pool room business and equipments, in the Dal Poggetto Building, to W. E. Hillis, late of San Diego, who is a young man of energy and an agreeable personality, which has already made him very popular with patrons of the resort. The new proprietor will continue to maintain the reputation for respectability and orderliness which the business enjoyed under its former management. Mr. Hillis and his wife have gone to house-keeping in the Calderwood rooms formerly occupied by the Library.

Monday, August 17th, is the date named for the reopening of the Sonoma Valley public schools, therefore, boys and girls, enjoy to the fullest the freedom of these mid-summer days, as vacation will soon be over. General satisfaction prevails among patrons and pupils of the high school at the announcement that the destinies of the young people are to be decided by the same corps of instructors, in the Sonoma Valley Union High School, with the exception of R. L. Platt, commercial teacher. Prof. H. M. Rowell, and Misses Ellen Trueblood and Margaret More have signed for the new year. The successor of Mr. Platt was to have been named at a meeting of the high school trustees, held yesterday afternoon—too late for us to report in this issue. In the grammar school, pupils will rejoice to greet the teachers who have become beloved. Prof. Jesse F. Prestwood and staff—with the exception of Miss Alice Soderberg, who has resigned, and whose department has been assigned Miss Burchard, Vineburg's late successful teacher—will again welcome their classes.
